

What is Context API?

- The Context API lets you create a central store (like a shared container) that holds data accessible to all components — without needing to pass props manually.
- Real-World Use Cases
- Props vs Context

React