Introduction to React Router v6

- React Router is a library used to create single-page applications (SPAs) in React .

- meaning your app can show different pages (views) without reloading the browser.

React